England & Scotland—The Great Awakening Tour

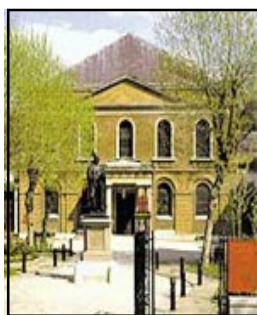

Saturday, August 22, 2009 • London

We are greeted upon arrival in London and enjoy lunch aboard our motor coach during an orientation tour of this lively and historical city. We see the highlights of London including Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, and the Houses of Parliament. (London, 3 nights) L/D

Sunday, August 23, 2009 • London

This morning we attend church at Wesley's Chapel. After service we enjoy fellowship and lunch and then a guided tour of the Museum of Methodism, Wesley's Home and his gravesite.

John Wesley was the founder of the Methodist Church and has been called the most influential Protestant leader since the Reformation. We also visit Bunhill Fields Cemetery, where Wesley's mother, Susanna, and many other influential Christians are buried. Our final stop will be at Aldersgate Street to see the Aldersgate Memorial, commemorating the place where Wesley experienced his conversion in 1738. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure to explore more of London. Tonight, you may choose to enjoy a theatrical production in London's famous theater district. B/L

Monday, August 24, 2009 • London

We begin this morning with a visit to the magnificent Westminster Abbey. The rest of the day is yours to discover more of this fascinating city. You may choose to cruise the Thames River on your way to the Tower of London to see the exquisite Crown Jewels, visit outstanding museums, or spend the afternoon shopping. B

Tuesday, August 25, 2009 • Bath

This morning we get an early start for Oxford—a city rich in Christian history. Much of today is devoted to the sights of the beloved Christian author C.S. Lewis. We begin by visiting Lewis' former home, the Kilns (if available). We visit Holy Trinity Church, where he's buried, and break for lunch at The Eagle and Child Pub, where Lewis had many discussions with his group "The Inklings." Our tour also includes Magdalen College, where he taught for nearly thirty years. Our tour of Oxford concludes with a visit to Christ

Church College and Cathedral, where both John and Charles Wesley studied. Late in the afternoon we continue on to the regal city of Bath. On our way we stop at Stonehenge to visit this amazing ancient sight. (Bath, 2 nights) B/D

Wednesday, August 26, 2009 • Bath

Bath is graced with magnificent Georgian architecture, elegant shops, and lovely cafes—all of which we enjoy on our walking tour this morning. We also visit the Roman Baths and Museum for which the city is famous along with the Pump Room. After lunch, the rest of the day is yours to explore this beautiful city on your own. B

Thursday, August 27, 2009 • Gloucester

This morning we head to Bristol—a center of evangelical Christianity during the 18th and 19th centuries. We visit John Wesley's Chapel—called "The New Room," which is the oldest Methodist meeting house in Britain. The chapel is now a fascinating museum. Our next stop is Charles Wesley's House, where he wrote some of his 7,000 hymns. This afternoon we drive to Gloucester where the fiery George Whitefield was born and later began to preach. When he was 22 years old, Whitefield was the foremost figure in a religious movement called the Great Awakening—bringing a spiritual rebirth across Britain and the American colonies. We visit St. Mary de Crypt Church, where Whitefield was baptized and later preached his first sermon. We also visit Gloucester Cathedral—an architectural gem and the place where this great preacher was ordained into the ministry. We have dinner together at The Bell Inn Restaurant, the birthplace of Whitefield. (Gloucester, 1 night) B/D

Friday, August 28, 2009 • York

This morning we drive through the heart of England to the ancient city of York. We arrive in time for lunch. In the afternoon we take a walking tour that introduces us to the city's Christian heritage. The largest medieval cathedral in Northern Europe—York Minster—is our first stop. We visit Clifford's Tower, a site of pilgrimage for Jewish visitors; then walk through the Shambles and along a portion of the ancient walls that enclose the old city. (York, 1 night) B/D

August 22-September 1, 2009

Saturday, August 29, 2009 • Edinburgh

This morning we visit one of the best-preserved segments of the 1,800 year-old Hadrian's Wall. The wall was built by the Romans when England was part of their empire. It was to prevent military raids by tribes living in what is now

Scotland. Visit Housesteads Fort Museum before continuing on to the beautiful capital city of Edinburgh, Scotland to visit one of the most famous castles in all of Britain—Edinburgh Castle. (Edinburgh, 3 nights) B/D

Sunday, August 30, 2009 • Edinburgh

Today is devoted to Edinburgh's Reformation history. We visit St. Giles Church — it was from this pulpit that John Knox (1514-1572) spent most of his Reformation years preaching. At the time, no country in Europe had greater religious corruption than Scotland. The nation was transformed through Bible preaching, particularly by three courageous men—Patrick Hamilton, George Wishart and John Knox. Later, we visit the John Knox House and Holyrood Palace—the Queen's official Scottish residence. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure to explore one of Europe's most lovely cities. Enjoy shopping or visiting some of the best museums in Great Britain. B

Monday, August 31, 2009 • Edinburgh

After breakfast we drive to the fringes of the Scottish Highlands to Stirling to visit its magnificent castle. Stirling Castle dominated Scottish history for centuries and now remains one of the finest examples of Renaissance architecture in the country. We continue enjoying beautiful scenery as we travel into the lowlands and visit the "bonny banks" of Loch Lomond. We see Aberfoyle and Bannockburn (site of Robert Bruce's victory in 1314) before we head back to Edinburgh. This evening we have our farewell dinner and a time of reflection on the tremendous impact the great revivalist preachers had on Britain—and ultimately—our own great nation. B/D

Tuesday, September 1, 2009 • Edinburgh

This morning we depart from Edinburgh for our return flights to the USA. B

Please read carefully

Terms and Conditions

This document outlines what Journeys of Faith Tours agrees to provide when you sign up for a tour and what you agree to do in return. This is very important information, so please read it carefully before you complete and sign your registration form.

Tours include: services of a professional tour escort, expert local guides, entrance fees to all sights listed on itinerary, transportation by deluxe private motor-coach, accommodations each night, all specified meals, luggage handling for one piece of luggage, and taxes and gratuities for all hotels, guides, and drivers. Tours do not include: airfare unless specified, optional insurance, beverages—except with breakfast, and items of a personal nature, such as passport fees.

Tour price: The tour price is based on the value of the dollar and the cost of airfare (if applicable) and is subject to change. If there is a substantial fluctuation in air prices and / or currency exchange rates, we reserve the right to adjust prices.

Tours cancelled by Journeys of Faith: Although unlikely, a tour may be cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances. If Journeys of Faith cancels a tour, the entire amount you have paid will be refunded to you within 14 days of tour cancellation. Once this occurs, Journeys of Faith has no other obligation to tour members on cancelled trips.

Travel insurance: Travel insurance is strongly recommended to protect your trip investment so that you may travel with peace of mind. If you cancel or interrupt your trip due to illness or other qualifying unforeseen events, your non-refundable expenses will be covered. You will receive trip cancellation insurance information with your brochure. We also recommend additional health insurance in case it is necessary for you to receive medical attention overseas. We cannot be responsible for damaged or lost luggage—it is important that you have adequate baggage insurance.

Tour member health and safety: Tour participants need to be in reasonably good health. Age is not a factor but physical condition is important. This tour requires considerable walking and standing while listening to tour guides. Some sights have limited motor-coach access and involve climbing stairs and inclines. It is recommended that you are able to comfortably walk for an hour, at least several times a week to fully enjoy this tour. Any person with a pre-existing physical or mental disability which may require attention or treatment must report the condition in writing prior to the beginning of the tour. In addition, any person who needs assistance must have a travel companion who is able and willing to help them during the tour. Smokers may smoke only outdoors and away from the group—never on the bus, in hotel rooms, or during group meals.

Termination of tour privileges: On rare occasion, a tour participant may do things which are incompatible with the safety, comfort or convenience of the other members of the tour. In those circumstances we have the right and discretion to expel someone from the tour at any time, without any claims or complaints against us.

Itinerary is subject to change: Journeys of Faith makes every effort to operate all tours as advertised. However, it may be possible that due to unforeseen events, conditions, or changes in airline schedules, the land portion of the trip may be extended or shortened. Any savings realized by such occurrences will be refunded; however, any extra expenses incurred must be borne by the client.

Responsibility: Journeys of Faith and Ed-Ventures, Inc., their officers, and employees, tour hosts, or any other persons or vendors connected with the tour shall not under any circumstances be liable to the client under or by reason of this agreement directly or indirectly for any accidents, injury, delay, damage, or inconvenience caused to the client by negligence of others, by malfunctions of transportation systems or equipment, by acts of war, terrorism, or rebellion, strikes, theft, itinerary changes, extreme weather conditions, or cancellations, and the client hereby releases the above mentioned corporations and persons from any and all such liability.
